PROGRAM OUTLINE

University of the Pacific Westgate Center for Leadership Development is offering a two-evening training program specifically for nonprofit boards. These sessions will build a bridge between board members and management and will enable the board and their organization to reach their full potential. Topics to be discussed include:

- The Roles of the Board and the Executive Director
- Setting the Mission, Vision and Strategic Goals of the Organization (What's our purpose?)
- Recruitment, Orientation and Retention of Board Members
- Legal Issues of Serving on a Board
- Evaluating the Executive Director
- Creating Successful Annual Board Retreats
- Running Effective Board Meetings
- Board Self-Assessment

EJ Kim, Program Coordinator, Westgate Center for Leadership and Management Development

“WOW! This course should be a requirement for every board.”

— Myles Harris Jr., YMCA of San Joaquin County

“Outstanding information and tools to use immediately to help me and the rest of the board improve our effectiveness.”

— David E. Price, Board Member and Treasurer, South County Crisis Center

“Having served on various boards in San Joaquin County for the past 40 years I have certainly attended my share of trainings. This is by far the very BEST ever.”

— Bobbie Wallinger, Library & Literacy Foundation for San Joaquin County
